KMBC'S GOT ★ TALENT

High school sophomores and above are invited to compete in KMBC's Got Talent for a chance to win up to $1,000 KMBC college scholarships.

Bill Scott travels the world speaking at conferences and investing in the hearts and minds of college students. He's passionate about helping people wrestle with life's big questions and pointing them toward the truth found in Jesus. and just launched a new Ratio Christi chapter in Kenya.

Kentucky Mountain Bible College invites high school students to Equip Youth Conference — designed to equip you to better understand life, the world, and your purpose in it.

Bill Scott provides practical, real-world insight on applying a Christian worldview and apologetics to everyday life—across education, culture, ethics, and beyond.

Over two days, enjoy inspiring worship, powerful messages, great activities, and KMBC's Got Talent, where participants can showcase their skills and compete for college scholarships.
